In furtherance of this purpose, the committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

1. To lead the search for individuals qualified to become members of the Board of Directors and to select director nominees to be presented for share owner approval at the annual meeting. The committee shall select individuals as director nominees who shall have the highest personal and professional integrity, who shall have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment and who shall be most effective, in conjunction with the other nominees to the board, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the share owners. In identifying first-time nominees for director, or evaluating individuals recommended by stockholders, the Compensation and Nominating Committee shall determine in its sole discretion whether an individual meets the minimum qualifications approved by the Board and may consider the current composition of the Board in light of the diverse communities served by the Company and the interplay of the candidate's experience with the experience of other Board members.

In furtherance of this purpose, the committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

1. The CEO may not be present during deliberations or voting concerning the CEO's compensation.

All such grants must be ratified by the Board of Directors.

The committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any adviser retained by the committee, and shall have sole authority to approve the adviser's fees and the other terms and conditions of the adviser's retention. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any adviser retained by the committee.

8. The committee shall oversee the Company's compliance with SEC rules and regulations regarding shareholder approval of certain executive compensation matters, including advisory votes on executive compensation and the frequency of such votes.
